Nine Alive In Congo Air Crash

Plane Shot Down
By Ground Fire
Over Katanga

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, The Congo (UPI) — Rescue parties reached the wreckage today of a United Nations plane shot down Thursday and reported nine of the 10 Swedish crew members alive.

The survivors were flown to the U.N. air base at Kamina in Katanga Province, after doctors and air men landed at the crash site aboard two helicopters. Escorted jet planes gave the first report of the survivors.

A U.N. Command spokesman said the plane was "shot down." The Swedish Defence Ministry in Stockholm quoted Capt. Jan-toll, pilot of the ill-fated C47 transport plane, as saying at Kamina it was hit by ground fire over northern Katanga and crashed.

The radio reports from the scene said one man was dead, one seriously injured, four slightly injured and four unhurt.

This accounted for all those aboard the C47 Dakota reconnaissance plane which was downed near Kamunza, a village about 29 miles northeast of Kabongo and about 35 miles southeast of the Katanga-Kasai Provincial border.

Forces of the Central Congolese government and those of President Moise Tshombe's secessionist government have been reported fighting each other in this area in recent days. But in announcing that the Swedish plane was "shot down," the U.N. Command did not say which side was responsible.

The two U.N. helicopters, escorted by Swedish jet fighters found the burned-out wreckage of the twin-engine plane in an open area away from the jungle.

PROMINENT SOCIALITE Corrine Hope Biddle Smith, 46, shown at right with Mrs. Pearl McManus, has been reported missing from her Palm Springs home since Sunday night. Police are undertaking a full scale investigation to locate the prominent woman.

Springs Police Searching for Mrs. Rex Smith

Palm Springs Police today were conducting an all out search for Corrine Hope Biddle (Mrs. Rex) Smith, a resort area socialite who has been missing from her home since Sunday night.

Officers said Mrs. Smith's friends and relatives have been checked without a hint of where she might be and that her health was not good, leaving open the possibility that she may have collapsed on the desert or fallen victim of foul play.

Police Lt. Robert White, heading the investigation into the active civic leader's disappearance, said that Mrs. Smith left her home at 1080 S. Palm Canyon Drive Sunday night between 8:30 and 9:30, wearing only "a bathing suit, fuzzy hat and slippers," following a family dispute.

In Family Dispute

Her husband, Rex Smith, operator of the Safari Hotel said his wife, who is president of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation Auxiliary, has never before departed from a family dispute.

She is described as a white female, 46 years old, 120 pounds, blue eyes, brunette hair, fair complexion, and usually wears glasses (but did not have them on at the time she left home Sunday night).

The Smiths have been married 20 years.

Police Ask Aid

Lt. White said that it is believed that Mrs. Smith may have walked to a nearby hotel and registered under a fictitious name. A check of cab companies found that she had not taken one from the vicinity of their home, and upon checking the bank where Mrs. Smith keeps her account, found that no checks had been drawn on the account since her disappearance.

Lt. White has asked that anyone having information on the whereabouts of Mrs. Smith, contact the Palm Springs Police Department.

A member of a prominent Pennsylvania family, Mrs. Smith once was a championship swimmer and expert horsewoman. She and her husband operated Mill Creek Farms breeding race horses and Irish setters. They still keep a few horses at Del Mar.

South American Military Crisis Flares Anew

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — Argentina's grave military crisis flared anew today. Rival army groups deployed combat forces, and the government braced for an attack in Buenos Aires.

A shaky cease-fire negotiated in the early morning hours collapsed when three top government generals who had agreed to step down to solve the crisis changed their minds.

Spa Traffic Lights May Bloom Soon

By JACK KNUDSON

Palm Springs' traffic problems have reached a "point of no return" and the vital decision will come before the city council Monday.

At issue is the need for signals to speed, or at least control, the flow of traffic north and south through the business district — and the long controversy over the alternative of one-way traffic.

Abandonment of one-way traffic plans and installation of the signals has been recommended to the council in a resolution by the City Traffic Advisory Commission.

And it stands a fair chance for approval because abandonment of one-way traffic plans is a conditional hinge set by the state highway department on funds that would pay more than half the cost of the traffic control system.

Up for consideration at a council study session at 9:30 a.m. Monday and for formal action at the regular evening session will be recommendations for immediate installation of signals at:

Indian and Palm Canyon Drive.

Tahquitz-McCallum and Palm Canyon.

Vista Chino and Palm Canyon Drive.

Indian and Tahquitz-McCallum.

The city has $30,000 in the budget for signal installations. Exact cost has not been disclosed, but the state would pay sums ranging from one half to two thirds on the cost of each installation on Palm Canyon Drive.

Reds Detonate Nuclear Device

UPPSALA, Sweden (UPI)—The Soviet Union detonated a nine-megaton nuclear device in the atmosphere in the Novaya Zemlya area in the Arctic today, the Uppsala Seismographic Institute announced.

The blast was the 12th reported by the institute in the current nuclear test series in the Soviet Union.

NEWS in BRIEF

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Overriding demands for an even tougher stand, the House Rules Committee today sent the "fight if we must" Cuban resolution to the floor under a rule barring amendments and limiting debate to three hours.

MERIDIAN, Miss. (UPI) — Three University of Mississippi officials were ordered to appear in federal court today to face possible contempt citations for refusing to admit a Negro to the white-only institution.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk today assailed House cuts in President Kennedy's foreign aid bill as "false and costly economy" in a program vital to U.S. security and welfare.

Rusk also said a House amendment cutting off aid to any country which trades with Communist Cuba was a "strait jacket" that would jar relations with Free World allies. It is "very important that this amendment come out," Rusk told reporters.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has flatly rejected a Chinese Communist charge that the United States was responsible for the Chinese Nationalist U2 plane shot down over the Red mainland Sept. 9, it was disclosed today.

The Communist charge was made, and immediately rejected, at a Warsaw meeting Thursday between U.S. Ambassador John M. Cabot and Communist China's envoy to Poland.

Sale of School Hits Legal Snarl

By GENE JOHNSON

Trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School District — faced with a complicated legal snarl—Thursday night decided to delay plans to retain outside legal counsel to help untangle their plans to sell downtown Frances S. Stevens elementary school.

Legal ramifications center around the Stevens sale but in no way involves any threat to use of the new Vista del Monte elementary school now under construction.

"We will never let that new school stand idle," emphasized Dr. Austin Sellery, district superintendent this morning after reading an account in an out-of-town newspaper that such a possibility existed. "We are growing too rapidly as a district to ever let such a thing happen."

Trustees came to the conclusion about outside legal help at a meeting called especially to discuss hiring the outside legal assistance last night after a meeting with County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan Jr.

Juggle Pupils
It is a Sullivan opinion that has sent the district into a legal entanglement which could result in a different student body than the one proposed for the new-building Vista del Monte Elementary School. The juggling would be necessary to keep students in the Stevens classrooms until the district can use the money from the sale.

Dollar Flow Dies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Commerce Department said here that the net dollar flow out of the United States dropped sharply in April, May and June from $476 million to $218 million.

Indian Troops Battle Chinese Along Border

NEW DELHI (UPI)—An official spokesman announced today that Indian troops were battling Chinese Communist forces at an outpost on the disputed northeast frontier.

The Chinese and Indians exchanged fire throughout the night and were still shooting this morning at the Dhola post, the spokesman said.

Three Indians were reported wounded.

An earlier Chinese Communist report said one Chinese border guard was killed and another wounded in a frontier battle with Indian forces.

Reports of the fighting coincided with an announcement that India has accepted a Chinese proposal to hold discussions on the border dispute.

An official Indian spokesman said the talks would begin in the Chinese Communist capital of Peking Oct. 15.

school's sale for a new junior high school planned in section 11.

According to Dr. Sellery, the district owns the Stevens downtown 3.2 acre school site through an unusual bequest by the late Prescott T. Stevens, Palm Springs pioneer. He gave the school the land on condition that it would revert to his heirs if ever used for anything but classrooms.

Another qualification, however, made it possible to sell the property. This was that the school would purchase any of three other sections for use as another school. One of the sections—No. 11—is the location of a 26-acre junior high site near Vista Chino and Avenida Caballeros which the district is currently purchasing.

Sellery said that original district plans were to move the students from the Stevens school — plus others from the Katherine Finch School and to the new Vista del Monte facilities around the first of the year when construction is completed. However, he said the Sullivan opinion might result in further juggling of the district's schools to place other students than those at Stevens.

Storm Hits Capri

ISLE OF CAPRI, Italy (UPI)—A violent windstorm ripped through this usually sunny island Thursday night, killing one person, injuring 30 others, ripping roofs off buildings, and sinking small craft in the harbor.

TWO-CAR collision at the intersection of Avenue Evalita and Camino Parocela occurred Thursday afternoon early injuring Neil B. Byerly of 956 Paseo Caroleta, driver of the car which flipped over sideways in midair before landing on its side, according to witnesses. The other vehicle was driven by Juanita M. Ingraham, of 580 Desert View, who was uninjured. Police officer Larry Sieh investigated the mishap and reported the injured man was given emergency treatment at the Desert Hospital, then released.

New York Stocks at Closing

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stock market reeled today before two heavy selling onslaughts which drove the averages to their lowest levels in about six weeks.

Among the blue chips, Du Pont, General Foods, Procter & Gamble and Owens-Illinois sank 2 or more points and dips of 1 or more appeared in around half the component issues of the Dow Jones industrial average.

These included Chrysler and General Motors in the autos, Kodak and Union Carbide in the chemicals and Alcoa and International Nickel in the metals. Steel showed Wheeling strong but Youngstown and Jones & Laughlin down at least 1 1/2. Texaco and California Standard were off comparably among the international oils.

U.S. Makes It Plain On Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States was making it increasingly plain today it intended to enforce a policy of containment on Cuba, balking any aggressive designs that Soviet-backed Fidel Castro might have in Latin America.

But the U.S. government gave no indication that bold new military moves and shifts of forces were necessary now in the Caribbean area to carry out its policy.

Adequate power apparently was on hand in the right places, although it was evident there would be increased military reconnaissance operations around Cuba and along the Atlantic shipping routes over which Russian arms flow to the island.

Should greater strength prove to be needed later, it could be assembled quickly from the huge Atlantic fleet and U.S. bases.

That the increased surveillance of Cuba's military buildup could bring clashes was acknowledged freely by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in congressional testimony made public Thursday.

The policy sketched in recent days by President Kennedy and Rusk seems to be this:

A sort of one-way quarantine would be enforced on Cuba. There would, apparently, be no effort now to blockade the island against Soviet arms and manpower imports — a step that could result in direct contact and possibly conflict between U.S. and Russian forces if attempted. But any effort to use Cuba as a base for export of arms or troops to other Latin American countries would be stopped.

To keep Cuban communism thus pinned down, the United States has available huge portions of the Atlantic fleet and Marine forces and a recently enlarged Caribbean command based in the Panama Canal Zone.

Hardesty Will Run

By United Press International
An interesting and surprising development was injected today into the California political campaign after Dr. Cecil Hardesty, San Diego County Superintendent of Schools announced he would be a write-in candidate for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hardesty made his announcement after a televised debate on Los Angeles Station KNXT between Ralph Richardson and Max Rafferty who ran one-two in the primary for the state office. Hardesty was eliminated in the primary.

"I've been swamped with offers of both money and support," Hardesty said. "I just need a little time to get things organized."

Hardesty said his telephone had been ringing ever since the debate ended.

During the television debate, Rafferty said he felt that Hardesty was "the best qualified" candidate but noted he had been knocked out of the race in the primary.

Henry W. Cleary Files Divorce Action in Indio

Henry W. Cleary, Palm Springs attorney has filed a divorce action against his wife of nearly 14 years, Marjorie Cleary, in Riverside County Superior Court, Indio. Cleary's suit, filed by Palm Springs attorney Leon W. Rosenberg, is the second divorce filing between the couple in Indio Superior Court since September 1959. Mrs. Cleary filed the 1959 action which was dismissed in December, 1960.

Cleary, who charges "extreme cruelty" and "mental suffering," asks that he be instructed to pay his wife $100 monthly plus $125 monthly for support of each of the couple's four minor children.

Salinger in Talk Before News Editors

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The White House has taken three steps to increase the flow of communications between the President and the American people, according to Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger.

He told a convention of the Radio-Television News Directors Association Thursday the White House has tried to increase the competitive flow of news, has tried to do away with "middlemen," and has opened the President's press conferences to live television.

Salinger said that in order to increase the competitive flow of news, the White House has tried to help radio, television and other news media develop their own stories on an exclusive basis.

He said that he and his associates on the President's news staff have made every effort to put correspondents directly in touch with the government official they wish to see. Formerly Salinger said, it was necessary to deal with an intermediate official, or "middleman."

The press secretary said the opening of press conferences to live television was having a tremendous impact on the people.

Salinger conceded that his office has no broadcast specialists, but said this was for budgetary reasons.

Republicans Claim Favor

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The two Republicans on the Senate investigations subcommittee have charged that testimony proves Billie Sol Estes got special favors from the Kennedy administration's Agriculture Department.

Sens. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., and Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., made the charge in New Frontier News, published by the Republican National Committee.

The same story also accused Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman and his "cronies" of using "the big lie technique," "whitewash," and "cover-up" in the Estes case.

The Senate subcommittee's investigation of Estes' cotton allotment deals now is in recess, subject to the call of Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

Housewife Attack Suspect Arrested

INDIO — A 19-year-old youth who told police he wanted to be punished for leaving his wife was arrested late yesterday on charges of firing two shots at a fleeing Indio housewife.

August Lee Frisk, a dishwasher who recently moved here from Blythe, and lives at an Indio area trailerpark, was arrested at his work as Indio police detectives carefully checked out 30 leads.

Police Chief Homer Hunt reported that leads which led to the arrest were received after a composite drawing of the youth was published in a newspaper.

Frisk told police that he deliberately sought someone to scare so that he would subsequently be punished for leaving his expectant wife in Blythe. In a signed statement, the youth admitted accosting 21-year-old Jessie Lea Cooley and firing two shots at the young housewife fled a Jackson street automatic laundry. When the young woman refused to accompany Frisk shortly after midnight, Wednesday from the laundry, Frisk allegedly told her he was "going to count to three" and pursued her with a gun through the laundry.

Cartridges ejected from a .22 calibre automatic were found at the scene, Indio investigators reported. The gun was found in the suspect's trailer home.

Frisk's statement to police indicated he had planned to scare someone without attempting to shoot a victim. He related that he wrote his wife asking a reconciliation after the shooting took place Wednesday.

Mexicali Farmer Order Restored

MEXICALI, Mexico (UPI)—The $8 million cotton industry resumed operations today after federal troops restored order among growers and cotton-ginning plants.

Federal assistance was called for Thursday when demonstrators set up blockades on streets and highways, using railroad ties to prevent trucks from taking cotton to the gins.

The troops reopened the roads to the plants following Gov. Eligio Esquivel's request for aid when 4,000 cotton gin workers voted to strike today in support of farmers and against factory operators.

Thomas Munson Faces Burglary Charges Today

INDIO — Thomas H. Munson, 29, 30247 San Antonio Dr., Palm Springs, was scheduled to appear before Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe this afternoon on two burglary charges and one charge of probation violation.

Munson, who was apprehended after investigation by Indio sheriff's detectives and Palm Springs city police, is charged on two counts of second degree burglary and one charge of probation violation.

Crabtree Campaign Launched

Some 150 persons met last night at the Chi-Chi to launch Don Crabtree's campaign for supervisor in Riverside County's fourth district.

The $10-a-plate affair was highlighted by entertainment provided by top night club acts from local clubs and was keynoted by campaign chairman Robert McWhirter.

In a brief speech, Crabtree pledged "... a program to solve problems of the blow - sand difficulties on Ramon Road, Indian Avenue, Desert Hot Springs and Thousand Palms."

Crabtree also stated that he will be a "full-time supervisor" if elected, and that he will work for equalization of the county tax structure so that the fourth district will receive a "fair share of taxes paid."

Introduced as key supporters of the campaign were Harold Haskell, Coachella; George Hooten, Indio; Julian Stiff, Palm Springs; Pete Ogden, Blythe; Malcom Jared, and Ben Cowan, Indio; and Thor Frederickson.

Entertainers appearing included The Storms, The Guadalajara Boys, Wally Harpet trio and Clesia Williams and Faye Cantrell Trio.

Blast of Bombs Halts Ghana's Celebration

ACCRA, Ghana (UPI)—The government canceled all celebrations of President Kwame Nkrumah's 53rd birthday today because of two bomb blasts which injured about 100 persons Thursday night, two of them seriously.

Those injured included members of the Pioneer Scouts, Girl Guides, Farmers' Council and Women's Council parading in honor of the president on the eve of his birthday.

Terrorists threw the bombs into the crowds as they paraded in the streets.

It was the third bombing incident in Ghana in the last two months.

One girl was killed Sept. 9 when a bomb was thrown at the gates of Nkrumah's official residence in Accra.

E. Berlin Guards Slowing Traffic

BERLIN (UPI)—East German border guards slowed down civilian traffic to Berlin today in a temporary harassing move. But they quickly cleared four U.S. military convoys through East Germany without incident.

For the third straight day, guards at Soviet checkpoints on the 110-mile Berlin-Helmstedt Highway cleared the American convoys. Today's groups totaled 439 men in 110 vehicles.

The convoys are part of a week-long exchange of troops between Berlin and West Germany for "routine training" in a move designed to underscore American determination to keep the Berlin access routes open. The only problem came the first day when the Soviets held up one convoy for more than three hours because of a "misunderstanding."

Two of today's convoys traveled from Berlin to West Germany, while the other two traveled to Berlin from the West. An Army spokesman said all four convoys arrived at their destinations in Berlin and the West in "completely routine" fashion without delay.

West Berlin police reported border guards at the Communist Babelsberg checkpoint on the Berlin end of the highway delayed German truck traffic during a 3 1/2-hour period by simply slowing clearance of trucks.

More than 50 Berlin-bound trucks were backlogged at the checkpoint, and some had more than a two-hour wait.

West German police said there was no apparent reason for the slowdown except harassment of Western traffic.

Trucks going to Berlin from West Germany carry nearly all the supplies needed in a large city, including perishable goods.

A Tribute to... our Chamber of Commerce!

The sincere men who aggressively promote the industrial advantages and potential profit possibilities of our city, comprise our most important, single group of citizens. They are the hard-working members of our Chamber of Commerce. On their shoulders falls the responsibility of attracting new factories and industries to our community, in order that more and more payrolls, families and homes will augment our already prosperous area.

Indeed, we might say that the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is the very life-blood of our daily lives, for their activities penetrate each business, large and small—bringing to all, the kind of help that benefits, directly or indirectly, every man, woman and child in our proud community. We salute the incomparable work of our Chamber of Commerce!

VOICE OF THE DESERT EMPIRE

BEIGE CALF is molded by Pierre Cardin into this smart jacket that will go anywhere — to evening parties when the desert nights begin to get chilly, to the city for important luncheons or museum showings. The banded neckline can be dressed up or down; pockets are big and friendly; sleeves are loose and bracelet length. A jacket altogether perfect for Southern California.

Natural Elegance and Grace Characterize Autumn Furs

Only a woman would be interested in furs with the thermometer soaring above the 100 mark; but this IS the time of year when these luxurious pelts loom large in the fashion picture.

Even in the desert, where warmth and extreme informality might deem it otherwise, a smart woman will find a need for furs — either in a jacket, stole, or full-length coat — for the nights get chilly, and certain events in the city demand more formal and luxurious dressing.

Shown here are three versions of the fur story being told this autumn season.

PIERRE CARDIN has also created this graceful coat of pale beige-dyed sheared muskrat flanks with a price that is in reasonable reach. Its stand-away banded neckline complements the dressmaker details, including the vented sleeve, deep concealed pockets, and figure-revealing lines. Immensely flattering.

Yep---It IS 'Little Shells'

By LEE CHRISTOPHER

Some of my more erudite acquaintances have telephoned me with a very looking-down-the-nose attitude to say that of COURSE "coachella" means "little shells." But it took a letter, mysteriously signed "A Desert Rat," to give me what is probably the story behind the story — and to reveal a bit of very early 20th Century history and an insight into the mind of some bureaucrat in Washington who certainly has his counterpart today.

"The Desert Rat," who says that he (she?) has been here for close to 50 years, writes — "The early settlers gathered to select a name. 'Conchilla' (pronounced cone-chee-ah) was decided upon since, as you correctly say, the floor of the valley was covered with tiny shells. The scribe who sent the name (into Washington, D.C.) for registration must have written much as I do — upside-down N's and looped I's. Before the error was noted, the upside down N became A and the looped I became E, and 'Coachella' had been made official."

And, of course, so bound up in red tape that nothing could ever change it.

Well, as a desert mouse to a Desert Rat, I thank you — and I still think it's an enchanting story.

More Notes

Col. and Mrs. Fred Elser have had as their houseguest Don Lamb of Dublin, Ga., a friend of their son and his classmate at the University of Georgia. The two young men helped the Elsers move into their new home at 1399 Tamarisk Road . . . visited Disneyland . . . attended the Lambda Chi Alpha convention at Pasadena . . . and heard Fred's grandmother, Mrs. Elaine Childs Elser, tell of her recent visit to Cuernavaca. Fred and Don have now gone East to Athens and school.

Other Disneyland visitors have included Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lotz and their two sons, Raymon and Phillip Charles.

Yesterday when writing about the Alaskan journeyings of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith, I THOUGHT it had a familiar ring — and then I remembered that I had been chatting with Dorothy Cohagan, and she had told me that she and her husband (Col. and Mrs. Cester W.) had just returned after an equally interesting safari to the Far North, during which they traveled on just about everything but a dog-sled. They drove their car from Dawson Creek to Fairbanks, Alaska, on the Alcan Highway ("all right," says Dorothy, "but I wouldn't want to do it again"), drove on to Anchorage, back to White Horse, took a narrow-gauge railroad ride to Skagway with their automobile aboard, took a boat down the Inland Passage with their car on another freighter, picked it up in Vancouver, etc. AND etc. With no map at hand, and my knowledge of the Alaskan terrain sketchy indeed, I probably have the itinerary wrong but I do remember Mrs. Cohagan's excitement and pleasure at seeing "Foxy" way up in Dawson City on the shores of the Yukon River. Bert Lahr has been starring all summer in the musical, which will open in New York in February of 1963, and at least 18,000 people have poured into Dawson City these past months.

Those "Cloud Nine" dwellers (literally and figuratively), Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stern, recently drove to the races at Del Mar with the Jack L. Meyers of Deep Well. They were joined there by the George Wrights of Blue Skies Village (summering in San Diego), Mrs. Marie Like of Newport, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard de Lambert, who live permanently at Del Mar. (De Lambert was the former United States Consul General in Chile). Part of the weekend festivities included a birthday party for Agnes de Lambert at Bali Hi on Shelter Island.

'Centerpieces' No Longer In Center for Table Decor

While a floral arrangement for a table setting is still called a centerpiece, it does not have to be confined to the center of a table. The number of guests expected and the type of setting selected, should determine where flower arrangements are to be placed, advises the Society of American Florists.

The old-fashioned rigidity of table settings has given way to modern adaptability and versatility by the advent of buffets and informal sit-down dinners, and by the use of brightly colored linens and dining accessories of contemporary design.

For instance, flowers may be placed on a rectangular table at one end or both ends; in one corner, in two opposite corners, on one side, or in the center. On a round table, they may be placed in the center, to one side, or in a row across the center. Flowers, often arranged low when placed in the center of a table setting, may be tall and wide or large and small when used at the side, the ends or the corners of a table.

To achieve formal balance on a long table having an even number of place settings, place matching flower arrangements at each end; for informal balance, place two arrangements — one fairly large, the other smaller but in harmony — at opposite corners.

For an uneven number of place settings, place flowers at the corner where there is no place setting.

For a buffet or small sit-down dinner, place the table against a window and use a pair of tall flower arrangements to flank the window; or place the table against a wall and balance buffet service pieces with flowers placed off-center.

TV's Barbara Britton Plays Another Role

NEW YORK (UPI)—Her face is familiar to millions of television viewers as the blonde who does commercials for a cosmetics firm. Not so well known is her role behind the scenes as a volunteer in an organization offering religious-psychiatric service to those in need of guidance.

Television fans know her as Barbara Britton. One acquaintance has called her "sort of a Betty Furness of the nail polish world" because for the last eight years she has been the "Revlon Girl."

At headquarters of the American Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry, she is Mrs. Eugene J. Czukur, wife of a doctor-psychologist on the foundation's staff, and head of the foundation's women's division.

The foundation, which had its beginnings with a meeting in a church basement 25 years ago, is a non-sectarian, non-profit organization to unite religion and psychiatry.

400 Patients Weekly
It operates a manifold program. An out-patient clinic handles as many as 400 persons each week—persons seeking a solution to their emotional or mental problems either through individual psychoanalysis or group therapy.

There also is a program in which clergymen, or clergywomen, of all faiths may take an intensive program of clinical training in psychiatry. And the foundation is also doing research in mental health, has a job-changing clinic, and offers marriage counseling.

The foundation was the brainchild of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, the noted minister and author, now is president, and Dr. Smiley Blanton, its director and one of the few psychiatrists still practicing who studied under Dr. Sigmund Freud.

The women's council, which Miss Britton heads, was founded in 1938. She is a charter member. The council's job?

No Conflict
"Just about what any auxiliary of any organization does," the actress said in an interview. "We lend support to the foundation in any way we can...raise money with lecture series, theater parties, offer scholarships to student ministers..."

Of the foundation's work, she said, "Today, we all get so in-involved with ourselves...troubled, we still turn to our minister. Perhaps if we were serious enough about our religion, that would be enough..."

"I see no problem in reconciling religion with psychiatry. I think it is the narrow-minded person who would have trouble here. There is no fight between the two. Psychiatrists have found they need all the help they can get in any area."

Flower-Arranging Film Available To Local Groups

Program chairman of local women's organizations may be interested in a new 30-minute full-color Christmas flower arranging filmstrip being offered by a manufacturer of a floral foam.

Titled "Holiday with Flowers," the filmstrip is available to the public on a loan basis free of charge. Individuals or groups may reserve the film by writing Smithers-Oasis, Box 118, Kent, Ohio. The scheduled showing date and an alternate date should be included in the request.

The local organization supplies a 35 mm. filmstrip projector, screen, and record player. The narration is provided on a 33 1/3 rpm recording.

To make a delicious dressing, blend 1/2 cup crumbled American blue cheese and 1/2 cup butter-milk. Pour this over head lettuce slices or wedges.

Beta Sigma Phis To Attend Breakfast

A large contingent of Beta Sigma Phis from the Desert Cities Council will be in Riverside Sunday morning to attend the opening fall breakfast meeting hosted by the international sorority's Mission California Council.

"Order of the Rose" invitations beckoned them to the affair, which will begin at 10 o'clock at the Azure Hills Country Club.

Going over from the desert will be Jane Dill, the local council's president, who will be accompanied by Dorothy Reed, Jean Wallace, Mary Maidoff, Andra Crowell, Pauline Copass, Almeda Stone, Helen Gundry, and Millie Herbert.

Also accepting the invitation will be Bettie Lacy, Lucille Fostvedt, Sue Lamkin, Ruby Hammer, Eleanor Donahue, Vivian Allchin, Velma Jacobs, Mary Valdora, and Charlene Hicks.

300 To Attend

More than 300 members from other councils in Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego counties will also be present, welcomed by Mrs. Donald Yates, general chairman for the breakfast.

The "Order of the Rose" invitations were in keeping with the sorority's theme of the year, "Everything's Coming up Roses," a theme that will be repeated in the table decor of pink, yellow, and white rose trees to signify the Nu Phi Mu, Ritual of Jewels and Exemplar degrees of the sorority.

Hostesses for the meeting will be four past council presidents—

Mrs. John Allchin, Mrs. Morris Pion, Mrs. W. R. Riley, and Mrs. Yates. The quartet are now known as "TOPs" — "Tired Old Presidents."

Guest Speaker

Appearing as guest speaker will be Edward Joyce of Pasadena, senior radiological coordinator of the California Disaster Office, who will take as his subject "Family in the Nuclear Age."

Mrs. Pion will give the invocation, and Mrs. Riley, charter president, will outline the history of the four-year-old council. New directories will be distributed by Mrs. Harold Rascher, directory chairman.

Following the breakfast, the council presidents will meet with the executive board to discuss local problems.

FRAGRANT ROSES in pink, yellow, and white will theme the decor at the Azure Hills Country Club on Sunday when the Mission California Council of Beta Sigma Phi hosts the opening breakfast of the autumn season. Shown here as they make plans for the affair are four council past presidents—Mrs. Morris Pion, who created the "Order of the Rose" invitations; Mrs. John Allchin, reservations chairman; Mrs. Donald Yates, general chairman of the breakfast; and Mrs. W. R. Riley, who is in charge of decorations. The breakfast will begin at 10 o'clock at the Riverside club; will be followed by a talk on "Family in the Nuclear Age" by Edward Joyce.

YOUNG PAIR TO LIVE IN SAN BERNARDINO

Miss Carlson Weds Kenneth Simpson

Miss Sheila E. Carlson, daughter of Mrs. Pauline E. Regnaud of Palm Springs and Roy G. Carlson of San Bernardino, was married to Kenneth G. Simpson of Norwalk earlier this month at a 7 p.m. ceremony in the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints of Redlands.

More than 150 guests attended the double-ring ritual, which was solemnized by the benedict's father, Floyd B. Simpson.

In White Satin

As she gave her vows, the bride was wearing a traditional gown of white satin, appliqued with pearl-dotted lace roses. She added a fingertip veil, captured by a tiny pearl crown, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis, centered with white orchids.

Serving as her matron of honor was Mrs. Carolyn Fox Ewing of Highland, who chose a frock of deep blue silk organza. Wearing identical frocks, but in a lighter blue, were the two bridesmaids, Marla Oliver and Rita Smith.

Little Denise Regnaud, the bride's cousin, performed flower girl duties, and young Jon Regnaud carried the ring.

Wedding Reception

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church's Fellowship Hall, where Mrs. Harry Warren, aunt of the bride and a long-time resident of Palm Springs, assisted in the serving. Her aides were Linda and Peggy Offerdahl, the bride's cousins.

While the reception was still at its height, the just-wed pair left for their honeymoon journey to an undisclosed destination; when they return, they will make their home in San Bernardino.

The new Mrs. Simpson, a past president of the Junior Native Daughters, attended San Bernardino Valley College and the University of Redlands. Her husband also studied at the San Bernardino college.

WHY IS YOUR NAME THAT?
YOU NOTICE IT BEARS YOUR NAME... WE'LL, IT'S ALL ABOUT HOW TO RAISE A CHILD.
NEVER HEARD THAT ABOUT THAT BEFORE.
YOU'RE A BRAINLESS INFANT, SO HOW COULD YOU? I MUST TEACH YOU...
FIRST THING IT SAYS ABOUT CHILDREN IS THAT THEY TURN OUT LUCKY IF THEY ARE RAISED IN A PILE OF CINDERS.
NO... YOU'RE GOING TO LEARN THE RIGHT WAY, AT HOME... GET OVER THERE IN THE ASH PILE!
BUT I THINK YOU'VE GONE SEND ME OFF TO COLLEGE.
ORG

HOPE YOU HAVE GOOD LUCK FISHING IN THE RED WARRIOR TRAIL!
THANKS A LOT!
HARVEY, IT WAS WONDERFUL OF YOU TO COME OVER AND STRAIGHTEN THINGS OUT!
THERE'S NO POINT IN CONTINUING A FIGHT... SO LONG, SANDRA... SEE YOU TOMORROW!
YOU SEE, MOTHER... I TOLD YOU HARVEY'S REALLY A NICE PERSON... A VERY NICE PERSON!

SECRET AGENT X9
WE'VE TRAVELED MILES THROUGH THIS WILDERNESS! HOW MUCH FARTHER ARE YOU TAKING ME?
DESTINATION NOT FAR NOW, DOCTOR LADY!
ENOUGH QUESTIONS! GENERAL SUPREME LEADER! HE TELL YOU!
BUT EVEN HO-CHI MUST TAKE ORDERS... FROM THE NORTH!
ANOTHER DEMAND TO PRESS ATTACKS AGAINST THE SOUTH! IT WILL BE MY HEAD IF THAT PATROL DOES NOT BRING DOCTOR OVERSEER HERE SOON!

FLINTSTONES
I HAVE A BIG SPECIAL ON BRONTOSAURUS RIBS TODAY, MRS. FLINTSTONE!
THAT'S NICE, MR. PEBBLE!
BUT HOW ABOUT A LITTLE SMALLER SPECIAL...
ONE THAT I COULD AT LEAST CARRY HOME!
BRONTOSAUR RIBS 10¢ FOR 100

Etta Kett
DAD, OUR HISTORY TEACHER SAID GEORGE WASHINGTON THREW A SILVER DOLLAR ACROSS THE POTOMAC RIVER!
SO?
OKAY! LET'S ASK DAD!

YOU MEAN YOU BELIEVE THAT BUNK?
HOW DO YOU KNOW? MAYBE HE DID.
MONEY WENT FARTHER THOSE DAYS!

FLINTSTONES
HI!
HI!
I'LL BET OUR NEW ADDITION CAN OUTCRY YOUR NEW ADDITION!

Starlet Has Loads Of 'Talent'

HOLLYWOOD
By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The last time Germany and Italy collaborated, millions of American men wound up in the armed forces.
A current Italo-German alliance, however, merely will put millions of American men in a lather. The old countries have produced the greatest thing since Bikini bathing suits.
They have, in fact, provided a beautiful filling for Bikinis.
Her name is Georgia Moll: German father, Italy mother, brown eyes, 115 pounds, and round, round, round.
Sexy and beautiful, Georgia has just completed her first movie in Hollywood, a good deal of which finds the newcomer in her favorite apparel—a Bikini swim suit.
Although she has lived in Rome almost all her life and looks like an Italian girl, Georgia speaks with a slight German accent. The combination indicates something good came out of the Axis pact after all.
21 Forgettable Films
Georgia has starred in 21 Italian films, few of which got farther than the Swiss border for the good reason that they fell short of minimum requirements of lucidity.
Even Georgia admits they were terrible.
"I would like to have made fewer but better ones," she said. "The trouble with Italian films is that almost all of them are filmed silently, then the voices are dubbed in later—even in Italian."
"My own voice was used on only six of them. The rest were dubbed by other girls, and it is a strange feeling to see yourself talking with someone else's voice. And rarely is it the same voice. Mostly they use a different person to dub in every picture."
In her Warner Bros. picture, "Not On Your Life," movie patrons will be hearing Georgia's own dulcet tones—in English. She also is fluent in German, Italian, French, Spanish and Russian.
Learns 'Method'
Georgia came to the United States five months ago to enroll at New York's famed Actors Studio to study the "method."
As a student of Lee Strasberg the 24-year-old beauty learned such intricate maneuvers as drinking a glass of orange juice: "You must learn to create. We did many things like lying down and reacting to sunshine and getting in and out of a bathtub."
It would appear that such activities might also be achieved in Rome where orange juice, sunshine and bathtubs abound.
"Yes but over there you have to read your lines knowing they will be dubbed by someone else," Georgia explained. "So you get lazy and begin to mumble."
It seemed unkind to break the news to the sweet young thing that mumbling is an Actors Studio trademark.
But who cares. When Georgia is wearing a Bikini she could mumble in Sawhill and no one would notice, even if Marlon Brando was dubbing her voice.

Movie Used In New York Education

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A New York University professor and his students are using the movie "The Guns of Navarone" as part of an experiment to discover taste similarities among people of different languages and cultures.
Movie exhibitors in such cities as London, Helsinki, Bangkok and Buenos Aires were mailed questionnaires asking them to rate audience reaction to the film's basic elements of entertainment, including performances, photography, screenplay and music. The findings will be published by Professor Robert Gessner, of NYU's television, motion picture and radio department.

Montana Lad Offers Help To Princess

HAMILTON, Mont. (UPI) — A beautiful princess was in distress and the young knight readied to ride forth from the West—even though he was only 11 years old.
The knight was Kirk Peterson, a sixth grader, who has a natural gallantry as a third-generation son of the West.
The princess was Grace of Monaco.
"I am not very big or strong," Kirk wrote Princess Grace, "but if I can help in any way please notify me immediately (sic)."
Kirk wrote the princess after reading a magazine article about the trouble her Kingdom of Monaco was having with France.
His emotions aroused by chivalry Kirk wrote:
"From now 'till my death I give my pledge of allegiance to you and to all of Monaco."
The princess' typed reply, which bore her written signature and an embossed crown, said in part: "Your moral support is much appreciated and means a great deal to me. It is very sweet of you to worry about our problems which I hope will be solved shortly."
"I don't think there is anything in particular you could do to help immediately but if there is I shall let you know."
"Sincerely,
"Grace de Monaco."

Limelitters Will Play In Hollywood Bowl

The Limelitters, who play the Hollywood Bowl Saturday although classified as a trio, are actually a quartet, according to Lou Gottlieb, leader of the group.
This will come as a surprise to The Limelitters' fans, but the mysterious fourth member who has remained anonymous so long is none other than Gottlieb's expensive base fiddle. And the reason "Mr. B. Fiddle" has attained personality status is because Lou insists on buying an extra seat for the fiddle whenever the group travels.
Gottlieb, a professor of musicology from the University of California, has a zany sense of humor which has helped promote The Limelitters to the big time, and he admits that "Mr. B. Fiddle" causes quite a stir when he takes him on a bus, train or on a plane.

Ann Corio Opens Her Own Show

NEW YORK (UPI) — Remember Ann Corio?
Her name went up in lights here last week for the first time in 10 years when she opened in "This was Burlesque," based on nostalgic reminiscences of her career on the runway.
Miss Corio wrote, directs and of course, stars in her new show. She was the toast of the burlesque circuit in the 1930s but gave up stripping in the early 40's for the legitimate theater, mostly summer stock. She also wedged several movie and television roles around a seven-year lapse in her career for marriage.

Ranch Club Adds New Features

A great deal has been added to the Palm Springs Ranch Club. Newly redecorated to promote an exciting, friendly atmosphere the Palm Springs Ranch Club has opened its doors to its members under the guidance of one of Southern California's most noted restaurateurs Bob Dalton.
In refurbishing the Ranch Club, Dalton chose an old associate to be his bar manager, James Damato, who has served with Dalton for the last 10 years. And with Damato came one of the new features of the Ranch Club, the valuable gun collection that can be seen on the backbar in both the Corral room and the roundup room.
Damato, an avid hunter and gun collector, has more than 80 guns, collected from around the world and from many eras of American history.
Of greatest pride to Damato is a special 30-06 rifle made for him in Germany. It was made to his specifications and has an inlaid stock.
His collection of guns goes back to the Civil War period, and comes up to today's hand weapons.
Aside from his enthusiasm over guns and hunting, Damato also raises hunting dogs and trains them.
The Corral Room is open for breakfast and luncheon, as well as the cocktail lounge. The Roundup Room will open Oct. 5 for dining and dancing. The club will be open seven days a week.

PS Indians Face El Centro Tonight

Kickoff Time 8 p.m. At High School Field

By BOB ABBEY

Tonight at 8 o'clock a "big toe" will swing into the hide of a pigskin from the 40 yard line at the high school gridiron booting the ball downfield end over end to raise the curtain on the Indians 1962 football season.

Sports Capsules

REGAIN FARM CLUB

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies announced today they will resume their working agreement with the Chattanooga baseball team when it enters the Class A South Atlantic League in 1963. Chattanooga was left without a team in organized ball when the Class AA Southern Association disbanded after the 1961 season.

JOINS ALL STARS

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former Kansas University basketball star Wayne Hightower today became the fourth player named to the College All-Star team which will meet the New York Knickerbockers in a charity game at Madison Square Garden Oct. 12.

FOR LADIES ONLY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The Atlantic City race track will hold its own version of "Ladies Day" on Tuesday, Sept. 25. Under sellers' windows marked "Ladies only," members of the fair sex may, for the first time in the history of the sport, purchase $2.00 tickets for $1.98.

RETIRE FROM GAME

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI) — Veteran National Hockey League forward Bert Olmstead left the New York Rangers' training camp Thursday and said he had decided to retire from the game. The 36-year-old Olmstead, who was drafted this summer from the Toronto Maple Leafs for the $20,000 waiver price, said he didn't think he could help the Rangers because of age and fear of injury.

Big Field in Yucca Golf Tourney

A field of over 125 resort desert area golfers will swing into action tomorrow morning early in the first round of the 36-hole Second Annual Invitation Golf Tournament at the Yucca Valley Country Club.

The two-day event is co-sponsored by the city of Yucca Valley as the Country Club will officially open the club's new 18-hole course. Today many of the golfers entered were playing a practice round and sweepstakes round which will be capped this evening with a cocktail party at the club house.

Saturday evening after the first lap of golf a tournament dinner will be staged at the Copper Room in Yucca Valley commencing at 7 o'clock. Roger Lenhardt, club pro said.

WRIGHT DIRECTION

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — The 1964 U.S. Women's Open golf championship will be played at San Diego, home town of three-time winner Mickey Wright.

This will be the start of a rugged nine game schedule for Coach Dick Bunting's chargers as they face the strong El Centro eleven, who walked off the gridiron last year with a 20 point margin as they downed the local Tribemen, 26-6.

Grid Drills

Coach Bunting and his assistant George Hertzke, have conducted an intensive training schedule since the first day of practice, striving to round the high school gridirers into not only physical, but mental condition as well for the upcoming grid season which gets underway tonight.

The Indians will be operating off a wing-T formation and be running left and right patterns as well and off-center, according to Bunting.

With 27 lettermen returning this year, the "chief" of the Indians will have an opportunity to get a good looksee at many of his returning gridirers. Bunting is pleased with his seven-member front line. "Our linemen are bigger and stronger this year," Bunting said, "and we have several promising boys who will help in depth not only in the line but also in the backfield," the head mentor added.

Good Strong Line

Senior Lee Lamb, a two-year letterman, will be at his familiar position at center. Two other seniors, Cliff Thaliss and Steve Foster will get the starting call at the end positions and Pete Borek and Bob Boyle will start in the tackle slots. Two flashy little guards, Steve DeGruccio and Walter Bussberg will place themselves on each side of Lamb to fill the guard positions.

The game tonight opens the season for both schools, and is expected to attract a capacity crowd to the high school gridiron.

Starting Backfield

This morning Coach Bunting announced his starting backfield consisting of Dan Knowlton, at right halfback; Paul Payne, at the other halfback; Ray Roberts, PS speedster at fullback, and Tom Bradley who will be calling the plays at quarterback.

Two juniors, Frank Fisher and Bruce Hamilton, who probably would have been starters for this game with El Centro, will not see action. Fisher, who received a broken right leg during a recent practice session, will be out for the season and Hamilton is nursing a broken nose which puts him on the disabled list for tonight's tilt.

Not a great deal is known about the El Centro Spartans, but Coach Bunting revealed that they have a goodly number of returning lettermen for the '61 squad and should be stronger in every department from the center both ways and also the backfield. Also, they will have a little more depth in several positions and as always before, will be "up" for this tilt against the Indians.

WHEN IN NEED

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sam Leslie, former first baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants, made 22 pinch hits in 1932.

GOOD GRAPPLER

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Leo Nomellini, 260-pound defensive tackle of the San Francisco Forty-Niners of the National Football League, is a professional wrestler during the off-season.

LA Angels Open Last Home Set

Play Cleveland 3-Game Series, Then Wing East

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels begin a crucial three-game series against the Cleveland Indians tonight as the Angels try to better their third-place standing in the American League.

Don Lee (11-11) was tabbed for mound duties for Los Angeles in the opener against Cleveland's Jim (Mudcat) Grant (6-10).

The Angels have come out on top in seven of 11 games against the Indians so far this year, and Los Angeles was counting building the lead even higher over the seventh-place club.

However, the count is three apiece for the two clubs locally and it could be anybody's ball game, as the saying goes.

Dean Chance, who may hurl the Sunday game against Cleveland, had to be relieved by Ted Bowsfield Wednesday when the Angels broke a six-game losing streak by beating Baltimore, 9-4.

FIRST TIME SINCE JULY

Koufax Gets Starting Call For LA Dodgers

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Sandy Koufax, who has not pitched since July 17 when he developed a circulatory disorder in his pitching hand, will start on the mound tonight for the Los Angeles Dodgers as they invade St. Louis for a three-game set with the Cardinals.

Manager Walt Alton named his star lefthander to start in a surprise move designed to take up the slack in the Dodger pitching corps caused by a recurrence of a back injury to Johnny Podres.

"Staring Koufax is not an experiment, it's a necessity," said Alton Thursday while his team rested on a much-needed day off. "Johnny Podres' back injury flared up again in Milwaukee and we need all the pitching we can get for the stretch run."

Opposing Koufax will be Bob Gibson.

And the Cards would like nothing better than to resume their role as "spoilers." Thursday they aided the Dodger pennant hopes by knocking off San Francisco 5-4 and sending the Giants four full games in back of the front running Dodgers.

St. Louis is smack in the middle of the Dodger drive for the flag. Los Angeles has nine games to go and six of them are with the Cards. They have a three game set in St. Louis and then come back to Dodger Stadium for another three game series to close out the season.

And the Dodgers won't exactly have the welcome mat out for the Redbirds. Last time St. Louis came to Los Angeles they swept a three-game stand.

With the day off Thursday, Maury Wills got a chance to rest his fleet, but beat up, legs. He also got a severe jolt to his hopes of breaking Ty Cobb's base-stealing record. Commissioner Ford Frick ruled Wills would have to set the mark in 154 games instead of the supposed 156.

That means Maury will have to swipe three bases tonight if he hopes to eclipse the mark of 96 steals set by Cobb in 1915 and not have an asterisk by the new record.

Rams Hit By Injuries

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Both Coach Bob Waterfield of the Los Angeles Rams and coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears juggled their starting backfield line-up today because of injuries to starters.

When the Rams and Bears collide Sunday at the Coliseum, Los Angeles will be without the services of halfback Jon Arnett and the Bears will be without fullback Rick Casares.

Arnett sprained his ankle last week in the Baltimore game and Casares has been bothered by a recurring leg injury.

Halas said he may start former Ram Joe Marconi who was recently traded to the Bears.

Sports Car Club Plans 'Fish Fry'

Club members of the Palm Springs Sports and Imports extend an invitation to all sports car lovers to join them in a "Fish Fry" to be staged at Whitewater Canyon Saturday evening.

Each one will be required to furnish his own eating utensils and refreshments, according to the program chairman. Salad and bread will be furnished by the club.

The group will gather at the Market Basket parking lot at 4 p.m. departing shortly thereafter. There will be a small tariff for both adults and children, so bring along the family and enjoy and outing with the club.

The active club members extends an invitation to all local and visiting sports car fans to their monthly meeting held every fourth Friday at the Security First National Bank on South Indian Ave. starting at 8 p.m.

READY FOR the opening kickoff tonight at the high school gridiron are these members of the Indians squad who will see a great deal of action in the season's opener against El Centro. Front row from left: Cliff Thaliss, Pete Borek,

Five Angels in All-Star Game

What a difference a year makes! In 1961, the Los Angeles Angels had just one man represent them on the American League All-Star squad. This year, they had three players named to the All-Star team for the first game and five men for the second mid-season classic. Leon Wagner, Billy Moran and Lee Thomas all played in both games, with manager Bill Rigney named as third base coach for the second game. Righthander Ken McBride was named to the second-game pitching staff but a bad back forced his withdrawal from the classic. Ken represented the Angels in both games last year.

El Mirador Claimed First Spa Golf Course

Very few people realize that Palm Springs' first golf course was built many years before the myriad links now comprising Coachella Valley's country club row.

Palm Springs' first golf course was the El Mirador Golf Club. The late Prescott Thresher Stevens, who later sold the O'Donnell Golf Club acreage to Tom O'Donnell, built El Mirador's course the same year he constructed Palm Springs' first plush hotel, El Mirador, back in 1928. It was an 18-hole layout and was sited just 1 1/2 miles from the desert hostelry's 22-acre grounds.

This fact was recalled during a luncheon meeting Thursday when final plans were made for the unveiling Monday afternoon of a bronze plaque marking the dedication of El Mirador Hotel's newest guest room building, a $1,200,000 91-unit addition flanking the south side of the desert spa's swimming pool.

Stevens' pioneering spirit and un-failing faith is honored on the plaque, which El Mirador owner Ray Ryan will unveil with a Western flourish while astride a silver caparisoned horse.

Official participants at the dedicatory rites Monday will include Sallie and Culver Nichols, daughter and son-in-law of Stevens. The Nichols family, by the way, has resided for many years in a spacious home remodeled from the defunct golf course's clubhouse.

Local Tracts To Be Sold At Auction

CATHEDRAL CITY — Three small tracts of land east of here are on the list to be sold at public auction by the U.S. Department of Interior's Bureau of Land Management, according to an announcement from the Riverside Land Office.

The parcels will be offered for the first time at 10 a.m. Wed., Sept. 26, and again on succeeding Wednesdays until sold or removed from sale, according to Oliver W. Johnson, Riverside Land Office acting manager.

Johnson explained that the auction parcels are sold to the highest bidder, but at not less than the appraised value.

The most valuable of the three tracts here, he said, was set at $5,500.

Persons wishing to participate in the auction may do so either in person or by mail, he said, adding that further information may be obtained at his office, 1414 Eighth St., Riverside.

Other parcels added to the government's list for auction at the same time included eight in the valley mountain area east of 29 Palms.

Upholds State Law

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The Florida Supreme Court upheld a state law Wednesday under which members of a biracial group were sentenced to one-year probation for refusing to leave a Miami restaurant.

The high court ruled that "the statute is non-discriminatory and ... reflects a valid exercise of the legislative power of the state of Florida."

Art Knutson Is Delegate

CATHEDRAL CITY — First meeting of the new season for the board of realtors here featured the nomination of Art Knutson as delegate for the California Real Estate Association convention in October.

Another highlight of the session, which was held at Laurie's Steak Ranch, was the appeal heard from the Arizona Real Estate Association for aid in their fight to amend their state constitution.

Drawing favor from all 20 local members present was the bid by the Arizona group which could overcome state supreme court decisions restricting real estate practice.

The association convention which Knutson was named to attend will be held in San Francisco next month, according to an announcement made at the breakfast meeting.

Use an old, decorative salt shaker for your corsage and hat pins. Just stick them in the holes in the top.

Talks Slated by Barbara Moss And Ted Smith

Two outstanding speakers will appear before the Palm Springs Board of Realtors and Multiple Listing Service at a joint meeting program Sept. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers of the Palm Springs City Hall, it was announced by Isabelle Cameron, president of the Board.

Tom Gemmill, Chairman of the Multiple Listing Committee, has arranged for the appearance of Barbara Moss of Long Beach, chairman of the California Real Estate Association Multiple Listing Service. She will speak on various phases of Multiple Listing based on her many years of service with the State MLS Association, Mrs. Cameron said.

Teacher of Realtors

In a career as a teacher, conducting her own "Barbara Moss Real Estate School," she graduated more than 7,000 persons over an eight-year period. She lectured in 25 states on real estate board operations, setting up new systems in numerous cities throughout the United States and Hawaii. Her book on "Multiple Listing Procedures" is used by state and national real estate boards.

Mrs. Moss was executive director of the Long Beach Board of Realtors for 23 years and for the past seven years she has been co-owner of Steele and Moss Enterprises, a real estate building and land development corporation.

Smith Widely Known

Ted Smith of Palm Desert, Legislative Chairman of the 28th District, will report on the Arizona case and on legislative amendments on the ballot for the November general election. He will be presented by regional vice president Theresa Press of the 28th district.

Smith has served as president of the Coachella Valley Board of Realtors and charter president of the Palm Desert Board, as well as regional vice president of the 14th District.

NEW DEVELOPMENT near Thousand Palms is unveiled. Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce Manager Jimmy Cooper, left, inspects the master plan for Tri Palm Estates as it is explained by Sydney Adler, president of Mobilife Corp., developer of the 2,000-lot mobilehome community. At right is Jim Ciprio, representing Sundt Construction Co., general contractor on the community.

Community Group Elects

TWENTYNINE PALMS — A community services district gives remote areas the means to solve its own problems rather than have them decided by county officials, Jack Stumpf, executive director of the San Bernardino County Council of Community Services, told the 29 Palms Community Council.

Stressing the importance of a community council or coordinating committee, Stumpf suggested they undertake such projects as compiling a Community Fact Book, local personnel file, and the development of local leadership as special functions of the council.

Robert De Witt, representing the chamber of commerce, was elected president of the Community Council for the next six months.

Developers Unveil Big New Trailer Park Plan

A big new 2000 lot subdivision near Thousand Palms was unveiled at a press conference and luncheon Wednesday by Sydney Adler, president of the Mobilife Corporation, developers.

Adler told the 30 present at the Riviera that the company chose the Palm Springs area for its first development in California after numerous studies indicated it was the best area in the state for such a project.

"The average per capita income in Palm Springs is $2399," he said, comparing it to $2233 in Orange County, $1907 in Riverside County, $2014 in San Bernardino County and $2310 in San Diego County.

"The average Palm Springs family income is $5534," he added, pointing out that the average age of residents here is 45.5 years.

20 Per Cent Permanent

A thorough study of the mobile home park resident was also made by the Mobilife Corp., which developed subdivisions in Florida and Arizona before branching to the new California venture, Adler said.

He reported that 20 per cent of the mobile home residents in this area remained here the year-round and that of the others, 19 per cent spent the rest of the year in Los Angeles County and 13 in northern California.

Adler added that of the trailerites interviewed, 47 per cent were here because of climate, 18 because their friends were and 17 because of health.

Don't Build City

He pointed out that his corporation does not build complete communities — such as Sun City, Palm City and other retirement cities — by reporting that "we don't build a city. We want to become part of one." He said his company will develop the 2000 lots — at prices ranging from $2495 to $4995 — and let others build the commercial accoutrements.

However, the 37-year-old president of the mobile home developers reported his Tri-Palm community will have its own 18-hole Par 3 golf course, refrigerated recreation hall, with hobby and game rooms, Imperial sized, heated swim pool and outdoor sports area.

Company Management

The Mobilife company continues management of their "communities" as Adler said their studies show deterioration follows the turning of such responsibility over to owners. He said a $15 per month fee covers all the facility charges.

Adler said the Tri-Palm Estates would be ready next January when first residents should be able to move in. He added that the recreation center should be 85 per cent complete then, and the first nine holes of the golf course will be sprouting grass.

Tucson contractor James Caprio will build the center, which will be located on the southeast corner of Ramon Road and Kubick Road extending nearly to Highway 99.

Show Features 22 Homes

Home-O-Rama '62, will open with 22 show homes in four locations for a 16 day run, starting Sept. 29 through Oct. 14.

The vast display, representing well over 750,000, is sponsored by the Home Builders Association of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. The annual home show will be presenting all that is new, best and to the builder's art.

Free to the public, the show will be open daily from 12 noon to 10 p.m. The public is invited to see and inspect the finest of home building, offered by the superior craftsmen of the HBA of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. A refreshment booth and ample free parking will be found at each location.

The six Riverside models are in the Jurupa Hills Country Club area, off Limonite Avenue; five also, San Bernardino and Grand North Rialto homes are in the El Terrace are expected to draw more than 150,000 visitors before closing on Oct. 14.

Doings in Desert REAL ESTATE

10 The Desert Sun Friday, September 21, 1962 Palm Springs, California

Realtors Endorse Solon Pay Raise

PALM DESERT — A three member panel of Realtors Thursday endorsed the idea of more pay for California legislators — but declined endorsement of ballot propositions before voters Nov. 6.

"We think that the legislators themselves ought to make up their minds first about what they want," Lloyd Loveland, Indio, told a joint meeting of the Palm Desert and Coachella Valley realty boards.

Ted Smith, Palm Desert board member and legislative chairman, endorsed Loveland's position.

On Propositions

Proposition 1 — not to be confused with 1-A, a state construction bond proposal — calls for increase of legislative pay not to exceed one-half a Congressman's $22,000 salary. Proposition 17 sets the top figure at $834 monthly.

Mrs. Dorothy McCulloch, third panel member and president of the Coachella Valley Board of Realtors, urged a "yes" vote for Proposition 4, which provides for assessment of agricultural lands. Mrs. McCulloch emphasized that the proposition is essentially an enabling act, requiring county or city legislation, written application by the farmer, and providing final authority in the county assessor.

Need Relief

Panelist Smith told the realtors that farmers need some tax relief from the formula of presumed valuation when non-agricultural developments are brought adjacent to farm lands, but emphasized that the bill would open the way to tax reduction by other than farmers. He termed the bill "poorly written" and "ill-advised."

Veterans exemption bills — in Propositions 2 and 3 — were opposed by the realtors. Proposition 5, termed a "giveaway" by Smith, received no official Realtor recommendation, but was referred for further study. The bill provides for award to state of workmen's compensation death benefits, if a claimant has no dependents.

500 Bills

The state bond construction proposition got a no-action response from the state realtor legislative studies, and the state bonded indebtedness proposal was opposed.

The Realtors did support Proposition 13, to remove the 100-acre limitation on tax exempt lands of colleges. Proposition 14, the tidelands oil bill giving the state right to sell reserved lands, is "not understood," panelist Loveland reported.

Loveland told the Realtors that "500 bills will be put into the hopper next session, which directly affect the Realtors' income." He emphasized that Realtors must provide funds to study legislative proposals, and to oppose those which hamper the growing realty business.

Smith told the group that "continual vigilance, additional costs, and unity" are needed to continue the private enterprise system.

FOCAL POINTS of a community are the recreation park and buildings to be opened soon at Panorama Village, the retirement community at Hemet where more than 500 refrigerated air conditioned

College Has Courses in Real Estate

Among the many programs of instruction offered by the College of the Desert to provide full educational opportunity for the youth and adults of the desert area, courses in real estate looms as one of the most colorful.

Not only will it provide professional education for those who have chosen real estate as a career, but will assist persons now engaged in the business services to develop a higher quality of professional service.

The new desert Junior college, in cooperation with the California Division of Real Estate and the California Real Estate Association, will grant a certificate in real estate to persons who satisfactorily complete 15 prescribed units in real estate and nine elective units in related subjects.

For further information concerning this course and other programs of the College of the Desert, interested persons may write or call the coordinator of community services at the college.

Saturday, September 22, 1962

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Be sure you perform whatever duties face you with much exactness and real care to know all of the true facts. Otherwise it may be necessary to re-do them. But what is most important, avoid a tendency to be over-emotional, too sensitive or permit any self-pity to obsess you now.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Getting abode in fine operative order to excellent this A. M., but be sure to labor alone, since others could get under foot. Then invite friends in. Enjoy favorite recreations.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Don't get so enmeshed with Saturday chores that you fail to get out and seek the data that is so vital now. Be interested in others. Get any important reports out in P. M.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — By being economical, you can still have a fine, happy Saturday. Be sure not to commit yourself beyond your means. Listen to advice of rather crotchety experts.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Steer clear of arguing with close ties and go out for personal aims. Get your health, appearance improved. Tonight is fine for cooperating with close ties. Fix up abode.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 22) — Forget that private anxiety and do whatever will assist you to get ahead faster. Meet the right people. Good friends will help you to a better understanding with partners in P. M.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 23) — Forget civic and business affairs now and think of what you want personally. Go after aims intelligently. Social affairs can be very worthwhile and interesting in P. M.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Since you have to make a choice between being with chums and doing work at home, do only what is absolutely necessary. Dress nicely. Be sociable and practical in all that you do.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — By being devoted to others, you now get fine cooperation and benefits in return. See what they need most. Make necessary changes in plans for better results.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — If you listen attentively to what good friends have to say, you can get along much better with others now. Forget that subjective advisor. Be thoughtful, courteous.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

— Be sure you know what your relative position is with associates so that you can handle matters with the public wisely. Be ethical. Get together with Bigwigs in P. M.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Forget unimportant things and get out where you meet important people and get information you need. Do only the essential. Be sure you dress in good taste.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — By getting out early into the activities that will propel you forward, you avoid hassle with mate or family, as well as tedious chores. Then concentrate on hobby. Be happy.

If Your Child Is Born Today

There will be a natural desire to be of service to others and to get into lucrative work early, but teach at the beginning not to depend so much on others, especially for ideas. Then the fascination in this nature will increase and there is much success in fields where neatness and precision are prime requisites. Be cooperative.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to "you".

Local Board Aids Fight In Arizona

PALM DESERT — Coachella Valley area realtors are sending strong support and financial aid to Arizona Realtors, who face a tough ballot fight for the right to sign contracts.

The pre-ballot campaign, which may require $1 million to carry the debate to qualified voters in Arizona's 1.25 million population, is an effort to get referendum end to a state law requiring an attorney to handle all realty contracts in the state.

"It is a test situation, because Arizona only has about 500 realtors but the obvious implications to the entire realty industry are plain," Richard Kite, realtor and president of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce reported.

Thoral Lake, president of the Palm Desert Board of Realtors, and Mrs. Dorothy McCulloch, president of the Coachella Valley Board of Realtors, emphasized the need for aid to Arizona's realty industry, during a joint meeting of the two boards in Palm Desert Thursday.

Their statements echoed a letter from Mrs. Theresa Press, Palm Springs realty chief and California Real Estate Association officer, calling for support to the Arizona realtors' referendum fight. The law, if it stands before both voters and courts, could seriously hamper all realty sales operations, Mrs. Press explained.

The Palm Desert board contributed $100 to the campaign, and 14 individual members added another $10 each to Thursday morning.

Appliance Demonstration Scheduled in Palm City

PALM CITY — A free home appliance demonstration will be held at Palm City, Wednesday, Sept. 26, it was announced.

Palm City is the 1800-unit "active" retirement community for people over 50. Located near Palm Springs, it is now offering immediate occupancy in its second unit.

The appliance class to be held in the assembly hall will be sponsored by the California Electric Power Company. Frances LaRue, home economist, will demonstrate appliances, including the electric ovens installed in Palm City homes.

Other events attended the past week by the 850 retiree residents included in pot luck dinner by the United Church of Palm City and a fashion show with refreshments and door prizes. Both activities were held in the recreation hall.

Regular weekly events include bowling (at nearby Indio), bridge classes, swimming classes, roque, shuffleboard, golf and golf

Martin Pinpoints the Menace

Minor "Pat" Martin, Congressional candidate from this, the 38th California District, brought out a significant point in his demand for action in the Cuban situation.

In his call for deeds, not words, against Cuba and for decisive action now, the Republican candidate for Congress, ripped apart the evasive defense for our Cuban policy voiced by some people high in administrative circles.

"They believe that there is no clear and present danger because only Soviet technicians have been sent to Cuba," Martin said.

"But we should bear in mind that any major conflict in the future will not be a foot-soldier war but a missile war."

"It will be a war between technicians. Soviet foot-soldiers arriving in Cuba should cause much less alarm than Soviet technicians capable of firing missiles at our cities."

The candidate called for a complete economic blockade of Cuba by the free-world allies.

It is time, he said, for all of the billions of dollars sent abroad in foreign aid to our allies to begin paying off.

After all, the basic idea back of this foreign aid to free nations was to bolster the battle against the common enemy — communism — and that common enemy is now building bases 90 miles from our shores.

Martin joins Congressmen and Senators of both parties in his call for picking up the "Big Stick" described by a former President Teddy Roosevelt who, by the way, freed Cuba which is now helping Khrushchev threaten the United States.

Instead, the present President has passed up the "Big Stick" to don kid gloves, declaring all this weaponry being shipped to Cuba is of a "defensive" nature, the implication being that it was not to be condemned.

Mr. Kennedy pooh-poohed the admitted Red arms build-up in Cuba supporting his contention that we should take no action which could be interpreted as hostile. This contrasts with the statement from Moscow a few hours earlier when the USSR said it would give all military and technical aid to Cuba it felt necessary. Khrushchev thus re-wrote the Monroe Doctrine.

Meanwhile, the build-up continues. A Cuban refugee leader in Mexico City says 20,000 "mercenaries" from Red China, Ghana, Algeria and Russia are in Cuba, masquerading as technicians and guided missile sites have been built at Bahia Honda and Veradero Beach, each about 100 miles from Florida.

One Capitol Hill observer remarked that the President seems to be downgrading the Cuban menace in the hope of eliminating it as a campaign issue.

But it is a campaign issue. Martin's contention that the technicians are more dangerous to the United States than foot-soldiers, is a sound one.

His demand for firmness while the administration is apparently ducking the Cuban showdown, merits the support of all of us who are averse to being "buried" as Khrushchev once promised would be our fate.

Let Them Hear You Tonight

If there's nothing else on your schedule tonight and you'd like to enjoy an evening in the open, go down to the high school football field and root for the 1962 edition of the Palm Springs Indians as they crack open the new gridiron season.

Coach Dick Bunting's proteges, as they did last year and the year before, launch their nine-game schedule against a strong aggregation of boys from El Centro High.

As a game, it may not be as polished an exhibition of football as will be presented later in the year. Neither team has had too much time to prepare since the school term opened a few days ago and both coaches will be experimenting with their charges under fire for the first time this season.

But there will be plenty of excitement.

For, although it is a practice game and does not count in the race for any championship, it is a game and the desire to win will be there. And that spurs competition and excitement.

Excitement and enthusiasm in the stands makes for enthusiasm on the field and good vocal support from the stands plays a larger part than you think in influencing the course of the game.

The Palm Springs Boosters Club has done a great job in supporting the Indians in their athletic efforts and the boys and their coaches appreciate the efforts and can vouch for the help this audible support during games and other efforts of the fans, has given them.

So tonight join them and exercise your lungs. Get down to the high school field and into the bleachers for tonight's opening game of the 1962 season.

It will be good for you and good for the team.

Make with the war whoops for the Indians come 8 p.m.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Self-Discipline or Regimentation

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Students of science and engineering in Alabama, Arkansas, New Mexico and even Texas habitually attend high school and college at home, and then go to Chicago, New England and California for their graduate degrees. They don't go home again.

Students in the Northern States, and in a few Midwestern States, take their early education at home, and their graduate work there or nearby, although some now attend the excellent advanced schools at the University of Texas in Austin and at Rice in Houston. But these students usually find jobs with industries in the North.

At the offices of Dr. Jerome Wiesner, the President's chief adviser on science and technology, this dislocation of American scientific manpower is a major headache. Southern graduate students, I am told, don't go home again because the industrial opportunities aren't there in what is historically an agricultural region. Northern graduates in science and engineering have, I am told, a reluctance to move their families into areas of racial strife. The over-all result is described by Dr. Wiesner as a "scientific wasteland" over large stretches of our country.

There is more. Without regimentation of Labor and industry, the Federal Government cannot do much — except to point out the situation to the public and the press — about remaking the industrial map. And without regimentation of local education — impossible in execution even if it were not politically forbidden — the Government cannot do much about rechanneling the flow of graduate students. A high school student in engineering or science is attracted, and admitted, to a University on the basis of what he has already learned. And high school students are attracted and are successful, in science-engineering studies on the basis of their junior high school opportunities. The sickening plunge in the number of graduate students from 1957-61, and which is indicated to continue through the Sixties, seems to have no bottom — and no remedy — unless the home communities do something about it.

Of the $16 billion spent annually on research and development, the Federal Government spends $12 billion and private industry spends $4 billion. The President's scientific advisers see this as meaning that the pet of our American Civilization — the consumer — is going to become a have-not wait. Already there are too many quality goods coming to us from abroad, and too many shoddy goods being manufactured at home. The decline of R & D in the civilian sector disturbs Dr. Wiesner's shop almost as much as the need for more and more R & D in Space and military goods.

We Are To Blame
The blame for all this cannot lie anywhere but with ourselves. The scientist whom I interviewed on the educational subject descended to fundamentals at the end of our talk by exclaiming: "Young people are just scared of work. I can't even make my own children study. The next day I heard T. F. Patton, president of Republic Steel Corporation, tell a Senate committee that since 1958 the USA has changed from being a net exporter of quality steel to a net importer. This incredible turnaround has been caused over the long run by our foolish foreign policy of building up rivals in West Europe and Japan. In brief, it has been caused by poor Labor-management relations resulting in strikes which have given foreign producers the chance to sell in our hungry markets, and by an anti-business climate in Government.

The reporter who conducts these interviews and attends these hearings can't help but conclude that our celebrated freedom is not serving us very well. To freedom, we must add discipline. And the discipline, if not administered by ourselves, is apt to become the kind of Governmental regimentation that we endured in the depression and in wartime.

At this writing, it looks like a very grim case of either-or.

QUOTES

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — Federal Judge C. W. Allgood, who ordered striking missile workers back on the job:

"This court must assume that any action that would seriously delay the nation's efforts in space technology would reach directly to the heart of our nation's defense."

ROME — The Vatican city newspaper Osservatore Romano, reminding mankind of its weakness in the face of earthquakes such as the ones which hit near Naples:

"The night, the day, the hour, the season when all of a sudden the buildings and streets on which we move will attack us with their apocalyptic rumbling cannot be calculated in advance."

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

Summertime is on the skids
Two days and then it ain't,
Autumn comes and off we go
To boom without restraint.

If you're the kind who likes to rise at the crack of dawn, you'll be on hand to say Hello to autumn on Sunday morning. But if you're the one to dawdle in bed, then Saturday will be your last rose of summer. (That's horrible.)

THE WAY the deep thinkers who keep track of such things have it doped, the autumnal equinox is scheduled for 3:35 a.m., PDT, Sunday, Sept. 23.

That's when the sun crosses the equator, heading for South America.

Theoretically, the days and nights, for a little while, will be just about equal.

NEXT WEEK the nights will begin to get longer until Dec. 22 when we'll have the longest night of the year.

This just goes to show that Nature knows best.

With all of the people coming here to play in the coming weeks and with all of our night spots ready to provide the playgrounds the longer nights give them more time to gambol.

(NOTE—That's "ol", "le" is against the law.)

WHILE we are moving into fall, the Latin poets are tuning their guitars ready to sing the Spring Song and write odes to the verdant season. For down there, the seasons are vice versa.

And while we will be enjoying the Winter of Our Content, it will be summer there with the longer days giving them more light to see by when shooting up the current government.

IN MY BOOK of Things Worth Knowing which goes in for such serious items as equinoxes and solstices and what they do for the weather, I note the startling information that at this time of year there it is either wet or dry.

That's thought-provoking, trying to figure out what else. Well, anyway, so much for meteorology. The next time this comes out I'll be this side of the autumn sun.

RUBY AND CONNIE of The Dunes which, by the way, first opened its doors 20 years ago next Friday, must have the best-kept date book in town.

Wednesday Mrs. G. and I marked our 45th wedding anniversary and sure enough, in the morning mail that day was a handsome card congratulating us. They never forget.

I think it was nice of them to include her in the congratulations, not just me.

IN THE MAIL also that morning was a missive from J. P. Healey of Valet Service. In it was enclosed a clipping of a recent composition of mine regarding the errant use of staples by cleaners to attach identification tags to pants sent them for renovation.

To the clipping was attached with a safety pin, his business card. We PIN them on, he wrote. That seems safe enough.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN:

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: We have a daughter who is 34 years old. She graduated from the State University so you know she is no dummy. She has been going with a divorced man for the past five years. According to her they have no plans for marriage. This man told our daughter that the best check he writes out every month is the one for his alimony, and he does not care to get married again. Our daughter is satisfied just to "go" with him. She has her own apartment and is self-supporting, but we think someone ought to tell her that "going" with a man with no marriage in sight is not respectable. Or do you think it is?

CHARLESTON
DEAR CHARLESTON: It is your daughter's privilege to "go with a man" if she chooses. Whether it is "respectable" or not depends on where she goes with him . . . and how far.

DEAR ABBY: When I was hired for this job I wasn't told that I would have to take vitamin pills every morning. Our boss is a real nut on the subject and she stands right over your desk to make sure you take the vitamin pills. Now I am 33 years old and I don't need anyone to tell me what's good for me. These pills come up on me (excuse me) and I have a very disagreeable taste in my mouth all morning. Must I quit a good paying job over something so foolish?

ANTI-VITAMIN PILLS

DEAR ANTI: Tell your boss (confidentially) that the pills disagree with you and I'm sure they won't be "brought up" (excuse me?) again.

DEAR ABBY: My wife's parents live downstairs and we live upstairs. Every evening her old man comes up here and asks if we are through with the newspaper. Sometimes we are and sometimes we aren't, but we always give it to him just to be nice. If a page is missing I get a telephone call and have to hunt it up and bring it down. I don't dare to work the crossword puzzle because her old lady likes to do it. And my wife can't tear anything out of the paper because we get a beef if something is missing. Who should tell them to buy their own paper? Since they're my wife's parents, I think it's her job. Right?

BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED: Wrong! Buy your in-laws a yearly subscription to the newspaper for their Christmas, anniversary or birthday presents.

DEAR ABBY: Why on earth would a man buy a girl a set of rings, give them to her and tell her not to wear the engagement ring out in public until he tells her it is okay? I am 22 and he is 28.

LIKES TO KNOW

DEAR LIKES: I don't know, but I would certainly find out before spending any more time with him. He could be (a) married, (b) involved with someone else or (c) afraid of his mother.

Unload your problem on Abby. For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

ALLIANCE FOR PROGRESS

Brazil, Key to Success Of Plan, Still in Chaos

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

When, in March 1961, President Kennedy announced his $20 billion Alliance for Progress program it was acknowledged that much, if not all of its chance for success would depend upon Brazil.

Recent events have shown how long are the odds.

Size alone would make Brazil important. She is the largest country in South America and is the fourth largest in the world, with the United States ranking fifth. As a key test of U. S. efforts to head off communism in Latin America, it also is worth noting that she borders on every South American country except Chile and Ecuador.

As a grand plan, the Alliance for Progress looked toward a total of about $10 billion in U. S. aid to Latin America over a 10-year period, with an equal amount to come from the better-off countries of Europe and from private investment.

Millions for Brazil

Of this, Brazil would receive about $700 million per year.

In Brazil there is a saying that "God must have been a Brazilian, because he loves them so."

This was the light-hearted approach that permitted Brazil in succeeding years to build up a debt of around $3 billion in a headlong rush toward industrialization and construction of a new capital in the hinterland without regard for cost or how to pay for it.

In 1960 the cost of living due to inflation jumped 35 per cent.

Into this financial mess on Jan. 1, 1961, stepped a new president, Janio Quadros, with a record of financial stability behind him, first as mayor of the industrial city of Sao Paulo and then as governor.

Quadros lasted not much longer than it took the United States and the International Monetary Fund to refinance him. He resigned in August 1961.

Then came Joao Goulart, the present office-holder.

Admitted to Club

A ticker tape parade in New York and a cordial reception at the White House signaled Goulart's acceptance into the club of hemispheric chief executives eligible to ask and receive continued U. S. aid.

At this point it is impossible to say whether Goulart would have carried out the promises he made in Washington. Army opposition forced Goulart to take an office whose powers had been taken away and vested in a prime minister.

Goulart said then it wouldn't work, and it hasn't. Prime ministers have come and gone. Education and tax reform bills have gathered dust, printing press money has continued to flood the country and inflation has jumped another 50 per cent.

Goulart has won a fight for a plebiscite which he hopes will restore the power of his office. In the meantime, Brazil indeed will need love from above.

Other Editors

The Federal communications Commission has done what it's been threatening to do — refuse to renew a radio station's license because it wasn't doing a good job.

Actually, there was something a little more specific involved in the failure of station WKD of Kingstree, S.C., to stay on the air. A disc jockey was getting too much double-entendre into his jokes. But the FCC backed up its hearing examiner who also found the station was generally deficient in programming — too little meat in the way of news and information and too much "Grits and Gravy" (the name of the slightly blue disc jockey's program of records and spot commercials).

Surely the FCC's ruling must be hailed as progress. Without some enforcement of standards, licensing becomes meaningless. We consider in this nation that the public owns the airways, and permission to broadcast over them is not merely a license to make money, but carries with it a responsibility to operate in the public interest.

It is interesting to note that the FCC examiner while casting WDKD for its low quality of programming, also said the station served its community "little better or little worse than most other standard broadcasting stations operating under like conditions."

This should make other broadcasters take a hard look at their operations. For it appears that the FCC is going to make good on its declared intention to require higher standards of public service.

Be thankful for the troubles of your job, because if it were not for the things that go wrong, the difficult people you have to deal with and the problems and unpleasantness of your working day, someone could be found to handle your job for half of what you are being paid.

It takes intelligence, resourcefulness, patience, tact and courage to meet the troubles of any job. That is why you hold your present job. Maybe your method of handling these troubles is keeping you from holding down an even bigger job.

If all of us would start to look for more troubles, and learn to handle them cheerfully and with good judgment — as opportunities rather than irritations — we would find ourselves getting ahead at a surprising rate. It is a fact that there are plenty of big jobs waiting for men and women who aren't afraid of the troubles connected with them.

Today it costs the people of the United States 90 times as much to govern twice as many people as it did 50 years ago . . . This situation started in the year 1913 when the 16th Amendment to the Constitution was passed.

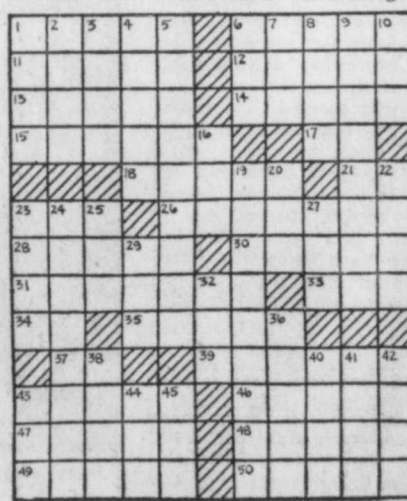

When that Amendment was ratified without any limit beyond which the government could tax its citizens, the government began to grow . . . that innocent appearing tax of three per cent on a few rich people (has grown) until today those same rich people are paying 91 per cent tax and the poor people who were to have been the beneficiaries of the tax are paying 20 per cent.

FK in Political Attack

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — President Kennedy opening his campaign for more Democrats in Congress, said Thursday night the voters must decide whether the nation moves ahead or returns to what he called the "do-nothing government" of the Eisenhower administration.

Kennedy told a crowd of about 10,000 persons in a dirt-floored livestock arena here that the 87th Congress had not "measured up to all that I had hoped."

What is needed, he said, is a "progressive Congress—in short, a Democratic Congress."

The President opened his formal fall effort to boost the House and Senate Democratic majorities at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner and television effort to back the gubernatorial candidacy of former Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth and re-election of Sen. Joseph Clark.

Talks Of Predecessor

Speaking in the home state of his predecessor, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Kennedy did not mention him by name. But he said that it was indeed a "cold day" when he took office in January, 1961.

"The nation's engine was idling," he said. "Around the world the picture was even more dreary."

"If the Democratic party is charged with disturbing the status quo, with stirring up the great interests and with daring to try something new, I intend to plead guilty."

The dinner in the exhibition hall of the state farm show grounds and a speaking program in the adjacent arena had the colorful air of a political convention. Brass bands blared and groups of pretty girls in straw hats roamed the aisles.

Will Try Again

The President promised that with more backers in Congress, the administration would enact such legislation as medical care for the aged and federal aid to education, which failed to get through the 87th Congress.

"More is at stake than what party controls the Congress and the various state governments," Kennedy said. "The American people on Nov. 6 must choose whether this nation is to sail or anchor down to deadlock and drift."

Upon arrival, he told an audience at the airport that "we saw today in the House... a very clear indication of why this election is so important."

"We passed in the House by five votes an agricultural bill which will save this country nearly a half-billion dollars, as well as protect the economic rights of American agriculture; and we lost in the House a bill of assistance to higher education, and three-fourths of the Republican party voted against it."

Employees of News Media Out in Cuba

HAVANA (UPI)—Two Cubans employed by U.S. news media were released Thursday night by security police who had held them prisoner for 18 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Raul Casanas said they were "well treated and well fed" by their captors, who questioned them only once during their captivity.

The Casanases said security authorities apologized when they were set free, saying their arrest was a "big mistake."

Two other newsmen arrested recently — British correspondent John Bland, who was with the Casanases when they were picked up Sept. 2, and John Barnes a Briton who had been covering Cuba for Newsweek, were expelled from the country Saturday.

The Casanases denied reports that they were looking for Russian army camps in the western province of Pinar del Rio at the time of their arrest. They said they were returning from the beach, where they had entertained Bland at a farewell party.

"We were arrested about a mile and a half from the beach at El Salado, where we went to give Bland a farewell party since he meant to leave Cuba the following Wednesday," Casanas said.

Casanas is a correspondent for the New York Times. Mrs. Casanas, known professionally as Sara Valdes, is employed by NBC news.

New Rule To Protect Consumers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department has proposed a rule designed to protect consumers against misleading handling of labels on meat and meat foods.

The proposal apparently is aimed, in part, at enforcing a recent department regulation which allows meat packers to add up to 10 per cent of water to smoked hams. When hams of this type are produced for interstate commerce they must carry a label showing they contain added water.

Agriculture Department officials say they've had reports that the water label has been removed in some cases before the ham reached consumers.

The proposed regulation would be part of a body of rules issued under the federal meat inspection program. The new regulation would forbid anyone to knowingly remove, deface, or destroy required marks or labels on meat.

The new rule would allow for unavoidable damage to labeling in the normal course of cutting or otherwise processing meat foods. USDA says the rule is designed to prevent the deliberate removal of information which the consumer should have.

An Agriculture department spokesman said the proposed new regulation would apply to all meats, not just to ham with water added. But he added that the decision to propose the rule was stimulated by the ham situation.

The Agriculture Department will accept comments on the proposed regulation until mid-October. After studying the reaction, it will make a final decision on whether to adopt, revise, or drop the proposal.

A conservation leader says education is a weak link in the American conservation movement.

The criticism comes from Marion S. Monk Jr. president of the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Monk says that only a small percentage of the children now in school will get anything like adequate instruction in the field of natural resources. And very few, he says will get a chance to learn what a soil and water conservation district is, or what it does.

The conservation leader's comments came in his newsletter to leaders of soil and water conservation districts.

State's 'Little Hoover Commission' On Move

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California's "Little Hoover Commission," created by the Legislature to make proposals for the streamlining of state government, is beginning its work with prudent optimism.

The bipartisan body, which goes under the legal name of a "Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy" will undertake the latest in a long line of governmental studies in the state.

'The Razorblade' Charges U.S. in Trujillo Death

OTTAWA, Ont. (UPI)—Arturo R. (The Razorblade) Espallat, 40, onetime secret police strongman in the Dominican Republic, charged Wednesday night the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency helped assassinate his former boss, Dictator Rafael Trujillo.

Espallat, who has been ordered deported to his homeland within 30 days said in an appeal to Immigration Commissioner Richard A. Bell his arrest here was an American plot.

The former head of Trujillo's security police claimed the United States would have him killed if he is sent back to the Dominican Republic.

He said the CIA supplied the weapons used to assassinate Trujillo May 30, 1961, and that the secret organization is now aiding anti-Castro forces in Cuba in similar fashion.

Espallat reportedly is wanted in the United States in connection with the disappearance of two persons from New York in 1957.

UP... AND OUT

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—In less time than it takes to read this sentence a new Air Force escape system can eject a pilot from the cockpit of his fighter plane and have him dangling in space at the bottom of a parachute.

A report by Lt. Col. Louis F. Johnson Jr. of the U.S. Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine puts the operational time of the new escape system at 2.7 seconds.

But while there has been "massive study," according to the Commission's executive secretary, L. H. Halcomb, Jr., "very few of the recommendations have been put into effect."

"We've spent hundreds of thousands of dollars analyzing our government in the last 20 to 30 years," said Commission Chairman Eugene Lee of the University of California's Political Science Department at Berkeley. "But much of the information gathered has been forgotten."

The new commission was set up in such a manner as to help insure its recommendations will be taken more seriously than similar ones in the past.

To give the body a better chance to capture the ear of the Legislature when it comes up with its recommendations sometime in early 1963, the bill provided for four of its 11 members to be legislators.

Appointed to the commission were Marks, Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, Sen. George Miller, Jr., D-Martinez, and Sen. Paul L. Byrne, R-Chico. Byrne died recently, and a new appointment is expected soon.

The other seven appointments were made out of the ranks of interested educators and businessmen.

The commission is virtually unlimited in its sphere of activity. It can investigate almost any phase of government in an attempt to find ways to make the huge state administration more efficient and productive.

However, a cautious approach is the order of the day, according to Lee.

"The government is so vast and the problems are so tremendous that if we suddenly jumped in and said this is the way to do it, we wouldn't accomplish much," Marks said.

Following this line of reasoning, the commission has been moving slowly. It is first concerning itself with summarizing past studies.

The members do not underestimate their difficulties. As Lee said in an interview, "it's almost impossible to conceive of how any of our recommendations won't be controversial."

"But our mission is to evolve recommendations as objectively and expertly as we can," Lee said. "We're not equipped to become lobbyists or a pressure group."

Comely Miss Works at an Unusual Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — This Reserve in Tanganyika East Africa, where for six months she will observe the chimp in his natural state.

Jane Godall, 28, blonde and attractive, is a far cry from the popular conception of a dedicated scientist living alone in the African jungle.

But make no mistake. She is deadly serious about her work. She has set up a laboratory at the Gombe Stream Chimpanzee Her current trip was arranged to fill the gaps in what she has learned about chimps during her first 15 months in the jungle. It will be sponsored by the National Geographic Society.

The findings from her first expedition already have caused the experts to revise some of their previous ideas about chimps.

A favorite at zoos and circuses, a grown chimpanzee may stand five feet and weigh 150 pounds. Considered the most intelligent of the ape family, he learns easily in captivity and is readily trained by stripping leaves from slim twigs. It was these traits that won the chimp the honor of being first into space.

In their natural environment Miss Godall reported chimps making and using simple tools. She said they pick straws, push them into termite mounds, extract them crawling with termites and then lick them as you would a stick of candy. When straws are not available, she said, the chimps make their own "forks" works to bed.
